AN PRACTICE AT OLD NASSAU.

Students Cheer Every Good Play and the Work Is Quick and Snappy-Rosengarten is injured and Carried Off the Field.

Princeton, Nov. 4.- The practice to-day as open, and the whole stand on the west wise of the field was filled with students who cheered every good play. One half of fifteen minutes was splayed against the scrub, and the 'Varsity secured a touch-down. Smith, Bannard and Kelly did not play, their places being taken by Poe, Rosengarten and Rieter, The practice, on the whole, was good-the best of the week. The play was quick and snappy. Armstrong and Crowdls both played well at guard.

The former repeatedly broke through Holt, and at one time succeeded in blocking tkick. Church put up his usual good game, white Rieser and Rosengarten under several pretty runs. The latter was injured and had to be carried from the field, but will probably be all right by Saturday.

No further protest is expected from Harvard in regard to Gaffey or Baird. Manager Audrus said to-day that the team would not leave for Cambridge until satisfied that Harvard Players Take a Rest. Cambridge, Nov. 4.—Coach Waters allowed the Harvard eleven a rest yesterday. The men were called together behind closed gates, but there was no line up. Signals were practised and special atention was given to the kick formation. Immediately after the practice the men left for Auburndale, a healthy town just out of Boston. Here the men get a football tal kafter supper and go to bed early. Captain Wrightington was on the field in his football togs for the first time in two weeks. He practiced punting.

More Promises for the Jumpers. Albany, N. Y., Nov. 4.—The Meadow Brook Steeplechase Association of West-Brook Steeplechase Association of Westbury, Oueens County, was incorporated to-day with the Secretary of State, to raise and improve the breed of horses and to con-duct race meetings. The capital is $10, 000. The directors are: C. Aibert Stevens and Stanky Mortimer, of Roslyn; Robert L. Stevens, of Holoken, N. J.; Raiph N. Ellis, of Westbury, and Sidney D. Ripley, of Hempstend.
